

Marco Gadola

Swiss (born 1963)

Finance & Operations Division / CFO

Marco Gadola graduated from Basel University in business administration and economics and completed an accelerated management development program at the London School of Economics. He joined Straumann in June 2006 from Hero, the Swiss-based international food group. He was appointed CFO at Hero in 2001 and was in charge of finance, information technology and supply chain. He also had full financial and commercial responsibility for several Hero group companies.

Previously, Mr Gadola spent nine years at the international construction tool manufacturer Hilti, where he held a number of senior commercial and finance-related positions in various countries. Before joining Hilti, he worked for Sandoz International Ltd. as an Audit Manager and for Swiss Bank Corporation, Basel, in Corporate Finance.